

1 WEEK PAINTING HOLIDAY ON THE COAST OF SW BRITTANY

This unspoilt area offers beach scenes, seascapes, cliffs and headlands, old Breton villages, churches and medieval towns. Small groups, personal tuition with Breton culture and cuisine.

£150 tuition + travel, accommodation and food.

AIMS

The aim of this painting holiday is to provide participants with the opportunity to develop their painting skills with the help of an experienced tutor in the culture and environment of this unspoilt part of France.

LOCATION

We will be based at Trefeuntec, a small hamlet near Plonovez Porzay, 200 metres from the sea, and near the attractive old towns of Quimper, Douarnenez and Locronan.

We will be based at my house and studio in Trefuntec where there is also a sun terrace available for painting sessions.

The area has many historic sites and a beautiful coastline with beaches, rocky headlands and harbours. Inland it offers an unspoilt rural landscape with attractive villages and old churches.

TUITION

Tuition will be based on a 6 x 3 hr sessions spread throughout the week, either mornings or late afternoons, allowing participants free time to paint on their own, relax or explore the area.

Tuition will be based on participants needs but is likely to cover aspects of composition, colour, tone, perspective and the use of tonal sketches and /or pen and wash in providing information for the final painting.

Tuition will be provided through a combination of demonstrations, individual tuition and critiques.

It will be the intention to paint outside on location whenever possible using the studio if its wet.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation is available on a bed and breakfast basis at the Hotel "Relais de Trefeuntec" (www.relais-de-trefeuntec.com) immediately behind the house.

While we shall cater for ourselves for lunch, we will eat out at the excellent local restaurants and creperies in the evenings.

TRAVEL

It is possible to travel to Brittany either by car ferry from Plymouth to Roscoff or by air to Brest. Roscoff is about 1 ½ hrs drive from Trefeuntec and Brest about 40 mins. Advice about travel can be given and detailed travel arrangements made once provisional bookings have been made.
